

YOUR MARRIAGE IS FROM GOD.

Unfortunately, it's between two imperfect human beings, so it takes work. Take time this week to sit down with your spouse and have an honest conversation about your marriage.

1. In what ways do we work together? In what ways do we compete?
2. How does your spouse help you grow in Christ? Tell them.
3. What does how we spend our time & money say about our priorities?
4. What's something you want your spouse to know about you?
5. Think of a time your spouse could "read your mind". Now think of a time you were on completely different planets. What was different about those two situations? How were you different? How can we keep from taking each other for granted?
6. Since the institution of Marriage was created by God, your relationship with God and your relationship with your spouse are related things. How does your marriage enrich or impair your relationship with God?
7. Do you and spouse pray together? Why or why not? Talk about your specific prayer requests and how you are seeing God answer them? Take time, right now, to pray for each other.
